TWELVE DROWN; BOAT SINKS

FEDERAL AUTHORITIES WILL INVESTIGATE CAUSE OF ACCIDENT.

CHIVALRY OF MEN FATAL

All Could Have Been Saved Had no One Blundered.

St. Louis, Mo., May 12.—Federal investigation of the sinking of the packet city of Saltillo in the Mississippi river at Glen Park, Mo., last night, which cost twelve lives, will begin as soon as the crew of the ill-fated vessel arrives here. The seven passengers and five of the crew were drowned by the tilting of the gangplank when it hit a tree.

That the loss of life was due to the mistake of ordering the passengers to hurry from the sinking boat when she was near the shore was the assertion of Capt. Crane.

"It was a bad mistake," he said. "Had we caused the passengers to wait a minute before trying to cross the gang plank none would have been lost."

At the time the order was given, however, no human could tell that the boat was not going to roll over into the river and draw every soul on board down. It is easy to look back and see what we might have done."

Chivalry of Men Caused Trouble. Testimony at the inquest which was not completed today, showed that the chivalry of the men who permitted the female passengers to start across the gangplank first cost the lives of five women and a baby. Capt. Harry N. Crane ordered the men to stand aside until the women left the boat.

One of the two bodies recovered today was that of Mrs. Isaac T. Rhea of Nashville, Tenn., wife of the president of the St. Louis and Tennessee River Packet Company, owners of the boat. The other was the wife of the porter, Daniel C. Taylor. Search for the remaining ten bodies was prosecuted all day.

Late today D. J. Caraghen, second mate, said the alarm on the boat was greatly increased by the cry of fire. Flames were seen to shoot up from the furnaces.

The fire was extinguished by the water when the vessel listed.

Boat Struck Rock.

Smoke from the lime kiln on the river bank and the high water prevented the pilot from keeping in the channel. The boat struck a rock concealed by the water. In backing off the vessel turned completely around. The steamer tonight is on her side almost against the bank.

Nineteen survivors arrived here today with little baggage. Many of them suffered from exposure and were unable to give an account of the night of terror which they passed through.

EXPLOSION KILLS 137 MINERS

NO HOPE FOR THOSE ENTOMBED.
ONLY FOUR HAS BEEN RESCUED.

WARNED BY NEWSPAPERS

Disaster Probably Due to Fire Damp
in Mine.

Manchester, Eng., May 12.—One hundred and thirty-seven miners lost their lives today in an explosion in the Wellington coal mine at Whitehaven. Rescue parties succeeded in saving four men, but fire has broken out in the workings, leaving practically no hope for those who are still entombed.

Throughout the day the rescue parties made considerable progress in the mine, but their work was stopped tonight by the collapse of the roof.

A curious fact is that a colliery warning was published in many of the newspapers in the mining districts of the Kingdom yesterday to the effect that unusually high barometric conditions rendered fire damp explosions extremely probable and that underground workers ought therefore be on the alert. The barometer reached its highest reading in the Whitehaven district.

King George tonight sent a message of sympathy to the owners of the colliery.

THE BATTLESHIP FLORIDA LAUNCHED

1,000 Men Required to Man America's Greatest Fighting Machine.

New York, May 12.—The biggest ship in the American navy, the battleship Florida, was launched today at the New York Navy Yard. Later on, when the Arkansas and the Wyoming, now under construction, are afloat, they will exceed the Florida in size by 3,000 tons. The Florida is by no means finished, being only about 60 per cent advanced toward completion.

The Florida is 521 feet six inches long, nearly as long as a City block her beam is 88 feet 2 1/2 inches, she draws 28 1/2 feet of water and displaces 21,825 tons in light order, while, when fully loaded, with her supplies and ammunition, she will measure up to 23,033 tons. Her estimated speed is twenty and three-fourths knots per hour, which would have been regarded a few years ago as the top notch for a swift unarmored liner. She will carry 2,500 tons of coal in her bunkers, which should enable her to make the round trip across the Atlantic at half speed.

Turbine engines, built in the New York Navy Yard, of the enormous power of 28,000 horsepower will maintain the high speed of this big ship and the steam will be supplied by sectional boilers.

The main battery of the ship will consist of ten twelve-inch rifles arranged in pairs in turrets. Just what the armor is to be on the ship the naval designers will not tell. That marks the adoption of new policy in the American Navy, as heretofore it has been customary to set out in smallest detail in the Chief Constructor's annual reports the thickness of every inch of armor on the ship.

It will take more than a thousand men to manage this great fighting machine, the minimum requirement being sixty officers and 954 enlisted men.

The estimated cost of the ship complete is $6,000,000, as fixed in the act of May 13, 1908. Her keel was laid March 9, 1899, as the naval constructors have reason to be proud of the rapidity with which they have carried on their work.

Aged Woman Slashed by Bull Dogs.

Walking to Pacific Coast.

Chicago, May 13.—With her face throat, arms and body lacerated by the bites of two bull dogs, Mrs. Mary Ryan, 72 years of age, is reported dying in Grace hospital. The attack occurred in front of the home of the owner of the dogs. When neighbors reached the scene one dog was tearing at the aged woman's throat while the fangs of the other were buried in her arm.

Luther, Ok., May 12.—C. A. Poling and J. M. Layer passed through Luther yesterday on a hike from Dayton, Ohio, to San Francisco, Cal. They claimed to be walking on a wager of $1,000 that they would make the trip in 100 days. They were thirty-four days from Dayton and stopped at the postoffice to get an impression of the office stamp to prove they had been here.

WILL NOT OPPOSE GOAL LAND BILL

May Be Re-Written Along Lines of Bill Introduced by Senator Gore.

Washington, May 12.—It is stated today that the conservation senators will not oppose a provision in the house Indian bill providing for the sale of the surface of the coal lands in Oklahoma, though it is expected that the provision will be re-written in the senate along the lines of the bill introduced by Senator Gore. This bill, which has been referred to a subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs, consisting of Senators Owen, Curtis and Page, provides:

1. That no purchaser shall be allowed to buy more than 160 acres of such lands when classified and sold as agricultural lands.

2. That all deferred payments shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding 5 per centum per annum.

3. That all such lands shall become subject to taxation according to the laws of Oklahoma as soon as sold.

And providing further that the secretary of the Interior is authorized to appraise and sell to any incorporated town or city adjacent thereto not exceeding 160 acres to be used perpetually as a public park.

Whenever congress shall provide for the sale of the coal and asphalt deposits contained within said segregated coal and asphalt lands belonging to the Chickasaw and Choctaw tribes of Indians, and prospective purchaser of said mineral deposits shall have the right to enter upon such land as he may desire to purchase, as evidenced by previous application filed with the secretary of the Interior, for the purpose of prospecting for coal or asphalt thereon, upon the approval by the Secretary of the Interior of a bond or undertaking to be filed with him as security for the payment of all damages to the crops and improvements on such lands by reason of such prospecting.

Any person who shall have acquired from the Chickasaw and Choctaw tribes of Indians, as hereafter provided by law, the coal or asphalt deposits in any such land, or the right to mine or remove the same, may enter upon and occupy so much of the surface thereof as may be required for all purposes reasonably incident to the mining and removal of the coal and asphalt therefrom, and may mine and remove the coal and asphalt upon payment of the damages caused thereby to the owner thereof, or upon giving a good and sufficient bond or undertaking in an action instituted in any competent court to ascertain and fix said damages.

STEAMER WITH A HISTORY RESCUES SIXTEEN MEN

Once Ran the Mined Harbor at Port Arthur—Brings New Tale of Adventure.

New York, May 11.—The steamship Tocantina, a famous vessel, which ran the mined harbor of Port Arthur to escape from the Russians, swings gracefully at her dock in Brooklyn today after a trip from Brazil, bringing a new tale of adventure and rescue.

A gold medal won by the captain and presented by the Brazilian government, commemorates this latest achievement of the little ship—the saving of sixteen fishermen off the Brazilian Coast on March 22. The first of the sixteen men was sighted by the lookout before dawn. He was clinging to a plank in the open sea and was waving a weak arm to the oncoming ship. A school of sharks swam about behind him and his rescuers found that his legs had been badly torn by them. The man had been in the water twenty-four hours and had eaten his last meat six days before.

He had set out from Rio Janeiro with fifteen companions. A squall took away their steering apparatus. All went crazy but this one man and he was compelled to take to the water to escape his companions.

After hearing his story the Tocantina cruised about for several hours, finally locating the wreck and rescuing all the fishermen.

PARROTS AS POLICEMEN.

Novel Method Employed by Poultry Farmer to Drive Hawks and Rats Away.

Spokane, Wash., May 13.—John "Speedy" Smith, a poultry farmer on Placer Creek, in the heart of the Coeur d'Alene mining district in Northern Idaho, has stationed several talking parrots as policemen on his ranch to drive off hawks and mountain rats, and raids on his pens are now things of the past. The parrots take kindly to the work and by their screeching they have forced the birds of prey and rodents to give the ranch a wide berth. The rats were the worst pests and their raids cost Smith hundreds of dollars, getting into the chicken pens and killing the pullets and hens by biting their throats and eating their hearts. Since placing the parrots in the chicken yards and pens, not a hawk or a rat has been seen and Smith believes he has solved a problem that has given poultry farmers in the mountain districts much concern during the last five years. Farmers in other parts of the district say they will try the plan.

RESOLUTION BEST MEASURE THIS SESSION

Senator Gore Succeeds in Passing Resolution Affecting Funds of Five Civilized Tribes.

Washington, May 12.—Senator Gore's joint resolution providing that no contracts authorizing expenditures of any tribal funds of the Five Civilized Tribes can be made without consent of congress passed the senate today.

Senator Kean of New Jersey declared that the measure is one of the best introduced at this session, and the only one he knew of where an attempt was made to save the Indians' money instead of spending it. He personally congratulated Senator Gore after passage of the resolution.

An identical resolution has been introduced in the house by Representative Murphy of Missouri.

Queer Behavior by "The Captain"

"So you come after all," observed Tabitha in a tone of reproach.

"I come right away, soon's I got your message," returned Lavinia.

The visiting spinster laid aside her shawl and straightened her bonnet. She was the dried apricot kind, and sucked in her lips so hard that she spoke with a lisp. It was a wonder that her quick, nervous movements never made her bones rattle.

Miss Tabitha was just the other way, like a pin cushion. There was a double chin under her face and a rat over it, and the latter was the more apparent because it was reddish in color, whereas the three wisps of hair that held it in were brown.

"Certainly I come right away," Lavinia reaffirmed, "and I'd just like to know why you're sending for me at this hour of the morning. I've hardly ate breakfast. What's happened?"

"Wait till you hear."

"The captain ain't had a spell has he?"

"Somethin' pretty like it. I should say, and if he hasn't, why then, I have."

"Do tell."

"Yes, it's just as I say. I'm that nervous I can't make a cup of tea, and the captain's in disgrace."

"Ain't taken to drinkin', has he?"

The visiting spinster went off in a titter.

"Lavinia Merkle! Well, no. But he would if he could, right enough. He's the worst parrot in Greenwich village."

"That why you've got the cage covered?"

"That's it. Didn't you hear nothin' in the night?"

"How would I across the street?"

"Well, it's a mercy you didn't. I thought all the neighbors would hear."

"What's he done?"

"Just listen to this. Come nine o'clock last night when I was thinkin' of bed, I noticed the captain was sittin' pretty sharp.

"O ho, Mr. captain, I won't stand for none of your nonsense," I says. "If you're up to mischief, you can take the mornin' for it." And he cocked his head on one side and kept his eye on me. I said "Good night," but he never answered a word, so I turned out the light and got into bed."

"That all?"

"I should say not! I lay there and I lay there, wonderin' what he was goin' to do. At last, after midnight, I hadn't no more than got to sleep when I was waked up by a terrible screech."

"Tabitha Mowscrips!"

"Yes I was 'Mr. Captain,' I says, 'you'll get yours, some mornin',' I says. And with that he let out a screech worse than other. That time I just passed it over so he'd think I wasn't payin' any attention to him. It worked good, too. There wasn't a sound out of him for a long time, but just as I was dozin' off again he let out another yell that made me sit right up in bed. And what do you s'pose he said?"

"What?"

"Whisky?"

"Tabitha Mowscrips!"

"Fetch the whisky," he hollers. Wasn't it scandalous? "Fetch the whisky—whisky, whisky, whisky!"

"You wicked old bird!" I says, 'you shut your trap. The neighbors'll hear you.' Then he changes his tune and calls for the peppermint."

"Peppermint?"

"Yea and hot water and smellin' salts and aniseets and Jamaica ginger, and everythin' you could think of."

"My goodness! What ailed him?"

"Cussedness. That's all. He remembered the spell I had last Thanksgiving, and he was just mocking me."

"Ain't he full of the mischief!"

"Is he? Then he started in again. Fetch the whisky—peppermint, hot water, smelling salts, Jamaica ginger, aniseets—" When he'd kept it up half an hour I got up and threw a skirt over the cage. That shut him up and I finally got a little sleep."

"Going to keep him covered over all day?"

"It would serve him good and right."

"Might be somethin' the matter with him."

"Course there isn't!"

Nevertheless Miss Tabitha stooped down and peeped under the skirt.

"My land!" gasped Miss Tabitha, straightening up suddenly with starin' eyes.

Miss Lavinia shot one glance at her friend, and with a frenzied clutch whisked the skirt of the cage. At the bottom of the cage lay a pale green egg.

The captain cocked his head on one side and leered ironically at the two old maids.

"Well, I don't wonder he was s'prised," remarked Lavinia.

"S'prised?"

"Yes, s'prised. Ain't it rather out of the ordinary for captains?"

DUKE STONE WONT RUN FOR SENATE

REFERS TO GREAT NEED OF GOOD SENATOR FROM THIS DISTRICT.

SAYS HE WANTS TO PUT HIS SHOULDERS TO WHEEL AND HELP ELECT A GOOD MAN.

To the Democrats of Pontotoc and Seminole Counties:

I take this method of thanking my friends who have earnestly solicited me to become a candidate for State Senator from Pontotoc and Seminole counties. This is an honor that any Democrat ought to be proud of and I hold it to be an esteemed favor that so many of my friends have asked me to make this race, promising me their hearty support.

I realize the need of a good representative for this place, and I believe that the great interests of this part of the state demand it and for this reason I want to put my shoulder to the wheel and help to elect a good man for this place, refusing my self to become a candidate for purely business reasons, at the same time knowing that I am declining the support of a large number of good, progressive Democrats who have the good of the party at heart, and at the same time realizing that I am declining to become a candidate for a place that is worthy of much credit and a position that I feel scarcely able myself to fill. Respectfully,

DUKE STONE.

Six Coons, Two White Men Implicated

Two Make Good Their Escape.

Last night about ten o'clock while the crooks were least expecting it, two of the city officers made a little drive through coon town and soon scented something suspicious. Upon investigation they found six negroes and two white men in a somewhat complicated game with cards and dice. Two of the negroes made their escape. Four coons and two white men were landed in the city bastile and will have to face a charge of gambling before the city court this afternoon or tomorrow.

The negroes are Joe Lewis, and Bill Watson, and the whites are Mark Lancaster and Kid Williams.

Officers Culver and Brady made the arrests.

LARGEST ADA REALTY DEAL

RICHARD FLOOD PAYS LARGE SUM FOR DAN HAYS TRACT BY THE KATY.

AUCTION SALE AT EARLY DATE

Lon Shrewsbury, Responsible Townsite Man, Well Known in Ada Manager of Sale.

A real estate deal involving a proposed townsite residence addition of more than usual importance and of necessarily much interest to the prospective home builders of Ada which has been in progress for several months has at last been completed in detail.

Mr. Richard Flood, of Wichita Falls, Texas, an experienced townsite man who is known to have enjoyed much experience, largely successful, in town building, has been strongly attracted toward the possibilities of this city for some time, and when he viewed the last possible close-in residence addition to this city, being that of the Dan Hays tract or allotment just east of the Katy railway and south of Main street, he became thoroughly convinced that there would be one of the principal residence sections of the city.

Suggestive of the confidence of the value of this property estimated by Mr. Flood, he paid the highest price per acre or square yard ever paid for a comparative amount of land in this city, the amount paid for the forty acres secured being $21,500, more than double the amount of any other offer when the field was an open one. Mr. Flood paid this large sum of money for this forty acres with the knowledge that there was considered by many a cloud on the title to the property. Today that cloud is removed.

The business and investing public of Ada are more or less informed concerning the litigation for several years involving this property. Dan Hays, well known local Indian, contested before the Dawes commission with George Brashears for allotment rights, each knowing that such quarter section would in time be more valuable than ordinary farm property. After a contest before the Dawes Commission reaching the Interior Department, there was unequivocally awarded the decision to Dan Hays and an incontestable allotment certificate issued him. But where Dan's trouble came in, his attorneys throughout the legal proceedings which resulted favorable to him, Judge Tom D. McKeown of Ada, and Captain McKennon, of McAlester, claimed a fee for their services which was probably only securable through a partition of the land wherein they would become part owners. At that time Dan could not issue under the department's ruling, a legal title to any part of his fortune, but time went apace and it came to pass that Dan was authorized to sell his land, but for some reason Judges McKeown and McKennon were unable to collect their fee through the issuance of a deed to a part of such land which had become very valuable. But what looked like an interminable delay in opening up this greatly demanded and required tract of land, so beautifully situated for residences, came to a quick ending when Mr. Richard Flood had invested more than $21,000 in it. It appears, in fact the records show, that he got in connection, for purpose of compromise, with the only possible claims of any interest in the land in short order and now there has been placed on record all necessary and proper legal instruments which releases and forever quit-claims any title by Judges McKeown and McKennon to the land, and Mr. Flood is sole and undeniable owner of the land in question. The public will feel glad that this land is now situated where it will shortly be placed on the market.

Already, Mr. Flood has associated with him as manager, Mr. Lon Shrewsbury, formerly of Sherman, now of Little Rock, for the purpose of beginning at once the platting and grading of the streets of this addition situated in part on the west side of the Katy tracks, but in principal part on the elevated plain just east of the tracks. Mr. Shrewsbury is well known in Ada, having for several years been sheriff of Grayson county, just across the line in Texas from where many of our Ada people came. Also he has previously placed addition sales on for responsible business citizens of this city and it is known by the writer that he can secure unqualified endorsement from them at any time as to general integrity of action in connection with the sales with which he has to do.

CATERPILLAR PLAYING HAVOC WITH FORESTS

Hominy, Ok., May 12.—There is a caterpillar working in this community that is playing havoc with the forests. Millions of them are stripping the trees of foliage, working especially on the oaks, working similar to the old army worm. A peculiar thing with this worm is that corn or wheat is not bothered, the devastation being confined to trees. Some of the expert fishermen say that on account of the number of worms falling into the creek bass are not biting, the worms furnishing plenty of food.

Convict's Attempt is Fatal.

Dallas, Texas, May 2.—Will Newell, aged twenty, was shot and killed early yesterday morning near Garland while trying to escape from guards of the chain gang of District No. 1. Sheriff Ledbetter was notified of the shooting shortly before noon.

It is declared that Newell made a dash to escape the guards while preparations were being made for breakfast in the camp and that he was fired upon when he failed to respond to commands to halt. The body was brought to Dallas late yesterday evening.

Newell, it is said, had served about two weeks on the chain gang.

WOULD PENSION AGED MINISTERS

$100,000 to Be Raised for the Support of Aged Preachers.

Chicago, May 12.—Officials of the Northern Baptist Convention, in session at Bartlett gymnasium, University of Chicago, have inaugurated a movement to raise $1,000,000 for the support of aged Baptist ministers and those dependent upon them. It is proposed to incorporate the foundation, which will be one of the largest church enterprises, as soon as the form of administration of the sum can be determined.

According to the resolution presented to the convention by Rev. H. L. Morehouse, secretary of the Baptist Mission Society and chairman of the committee on ministerial relief, the plan may be broadened to include a general pension system for ministers. The foundation is expected to be secured from individual donors and from the church organization in the various states.

EMPORIA PEEPER CONVICTED

Negro's Excuse Was Drunkenness and Irresponsibility.

Emporia, Kas., May 11.—John West a negro, was found guilty of attempted burglary in the first degree by a jury in the district court here today. West is the negro who was shot last month while peeping into the bedroom of a woman. This was his second offense, the first case being dismissed.

The trial occupied all of yesterday. The defense of West was on the plea of drunkenness and irresponsibility.

New Daily for Durant.

Durant, Okla., May 12.—The Democrat Printing Co., with a capital of $15,000, has been organized in this city for the purpose of publishing the "Durant Daily Democrat" and the "Bryan County Democrat." The new daily will appear about May 20, while the weekly has been published for nearly four years. Seventy-five of the leading business men of Durant are in the corporation. The directors are R. H. Glenn, G. W. Archibald, R. F. Story, E. B. Collins and H. A. Carroll. The officers are R. H. Glenn, president; R. F. Story, vice-president, and G. W. Archibald, secretary-treasurer. A first class plant, including linotype machine, is being installed.

It is declared that Newell made a dash to escape the guards while preparations were being made for breakfast in the camp and that he was fired upon when he failed to respond to commands to halt. The body was brought to Dallas late yesterday evening.

Newell, it is said, had served about two weeks on the chain gang.

PASSION PLAY REHEARSED THEATER FILLED TO LIMIT

Oberammergau, Upper Bavaria, May 11.—The Passion play season opened today with a public rehearsal. The perfected performance will be given next Monday.

Today the picturesque little village sloping to the right bank of the river Ammer, was sprinkled with snow while the surrounding mountains were completely veiled in white. To the normal population of 1,500 has been added thousands of strangers and it is quite likely the sacred scenes will be witnessed by a greater number than ever before.

The rehearsal moved smoothly and made a deep impression upon an audience that filled the outdoor theater to its limits.

Anton Lang again impersonates Christ, but there have been a number of changes in other roles since the production of 1900. The chorus has been thoroughly reorganized and now consists of forty voices. The work of the chorus is effective.

Among the Americans present were the three daughters of General W. T.

TWELVE DROWN; BOAT SINKS

FEDERAL AUTHORITIES WILL INVESTIGATE CAUSE OF ACCIDENT.

CHIVALRY OF MEN FATAL

All Could Have Been Saved Had no One Blundered.

St. Louis, Mo., May 12.—Federal investigation of the sinking of the packet city of Saltillo in the Mississippi river at Glen Park, Mo., last night, which cost twelve lives, will begin as soon as the crew of the ill-fated vessel arrives here. The seven passengers and five of the crew were drowned by the tilting of the gangplank when it hit a tree.

That the loss of life was due to the mistake of ordering the passengers to hurry from the sinking boat when he was near the shore was the assertion of Capt. Crane.

"It was a bad mistake," he said. "Had we caused the passengers to wait a minute before trying to cross the gang plank none would have been lost."

At the time the order was given, however, no human could tell that the boat was not going to roll over into the river and draw every soul on board down. It is easy to look back and see what we might have done."

EXPLOSION KILLS 137 MINERS

NO HOPE FOR THOSE ENTOMBED. ONLY FOUR HAS BEEN RESCUED.

WARNED BY NEWSPAPERS

Disaster Probably Due to Fire Damp in Mine.

Manchester, Eng., May 12.—One hundred and thirty-seven miners lost their lives today in an explosion in the Wellington coal mine at Whitehaven. Rescue parties succeeded in saving four men, but fire has broken out in the workings, leaving practically no hope for those who are still entombed.

Throughout the day the rescue parties made considerable progress in the mine, but their work was stopped tonight by the collapse of the roof.

A curious fact is that a colliery warning was published in many of the newspapers in the mining districts of the Kingdom yesterday to the effect that unusually high barometric conditions rendered fire damp explosions extremely probable and that underground workers ought therefore be on the alert. The barometer reached its highest reading in the Whitehaven district.

King George tonight sent a message of sympathy to the owners of the colliery.

THE BATTLESHIP FLORIDA LAUNCHED

1,000 Men Required to Man America's Greatest Fighting Machine.

New York, May 12.—The biggest ship in the American navy, the battleship Florida, was launched today at the New York Navy Yard. Later on, when the Arkansas and the Wyoming, now under construction, are afloat, they will exceed the Florida in size by 2,000 tons. The Florida is by no means finished, being only about 60 per cent advanced toward completion.

The Florida is 521 feet six inches long, nearly as long as a City block; her beam is 88 feet 2 1/2 inches, she draws 28 1/2 feet of water and displaces 21,825 tons in light order; while, when fully loaded, with her supplies and ammunition, she will measure up to 23,033 tons. Her estimated speed is twenty and three-fourths knots per hour, which would have been regarded a few years ago as the top notch for a swift unarmored liner. She will carry 2,500 tons of coal in her bunkers, which should enable her to make the round trip across the Atlantic at half speed.

Turbine engines, built in the New York Navy Yard, of the enormous power of 28,000 horsepower will maintain the high speed of this big ship, and the steam will be supplied by sectional boilers.

The main battery of the ship will consist of ten twelve-inch rifles arranged in pairs in turrets.

Just what the armor is to be on the ship the naval designers will not tell. That marks the adoption of a new policy in the American Navy, as heretofore it has been customary to set out in smallest detail in the Chief Constructor's annual reports the thickness of every inch of armor on the ship.

It will take more than a thousand men to manage this great fighting machine, the minimum requirement being sixty officers and 954 enlisted men.

The estimated cost of the ship complete is $6,000,000, as fixed in the act of May 13, 1908. Her keel was laid March 9, 1899, as the naval constructors have reason to be proud of the rapidity with which they have carried on their work.

WILL NOT OPPOSE COAL LAND BILL

May Be Re-Written Along Lines of Bill Introduced by Senator Gore.

Washington, May 12.—It is stated today that the conservation senators will not oppose a provision in the house Indian bill providing for the sale of the surface of the coal lands in Oklahoma, though it is expected that the provision will be re-written in the senate along the lines of the bill introduced by Senator Gore. This bill, which has been referred to a subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs, consisting of Senators Owen, Curtis and Page, provides:

1. That no purchaser shall be allowed to buy more than 160 acres of such lands when classified and sold as agricultural lands.

2. That all deferred payments shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding 5 per centum per annum.

3. That all such lands shall become subject to taxation according to the laws of Oklahoma as soon as sold.

"And providing further that the secretary of the Interior is authorized to appraise and sell to any incorporated town or city adjacent thereto not exceeding 160 acres to be used perpetually as a public park.

"Whenever congress shall provide for the sale of the coal and asphalt deposits contained within said segregated coal and asphalt lands belonging to the Chickasaw and Choctaw tribes of Indians, and prospective purchaser of said mineral deposits shall have the right to enter upon such land as he may desire to purchase, as evidenced by previous application filed with the secretary of the Interior, for the purpose of prospecting for coal or asphalt thereon, upon the approval by the Secretary of the Interior of a bond or undertaking to be filed with him as security for the payment of all damages to the crops and improvements on such lands by reason of such prospecting.

"Any person who shall have acquired from the Chickasaw and Choctaw tribes of Indians, as hereafter provided by law, the coal or asphalt deposits in any such land, or the right to mine or remove the same, may enter upon and occupy so much of the surface thereof as may be required for all purposes reasonably incident to the mining and removal of the coal and asphalt therefrom, and may mine and remove the coal and asphalt upon payment of the damages caused thereby to the owner thereof, or upon giving a good and sufficient bond or undertaking in an action instituted in any competent court to ascertain and fix said damages."

STEAMER WITH A HISTORY RESCUES SIXTEEN MEN

Once Ran the Mined Harbor at Port Arthur—Brings New Tale of Adventure.

New York, May 11.—The steamship Tocantine, a famous vessel, which ran the mined harbor of Port Arthur to escape from the Russians, swings gracefully at her dock in Brooklyn today after a trip from Brazil, bringing a new tale of adventure and rescue.

A gold medal won by the captain and presented by the Brazilian government, commemorates this latest achievement of the little ship—the saving of sixteen fishermen off the Brazilian Coast on March 22. The first of the sixteen men was sighted by the lookout before dawn. He was clinging to a plank in the open sea and was waving a weak arm to the oncoming ship. A school of sharks swam about behind him and his rescuers found that his legs had been badly torn by them. The man had been in the water twenty-four hours and had eaten his last meat six days before.

He had set out from Rio Janeiro with fifteen companions. A squall took away their steering apparatus. All went crazy but this one man and he was compelled to take to the water to escape his companions.

After hearing his story the Tocantine cruised about for several hours, finally locating the wreck and rescuing all the fishermen.

PARROTS AS POLICEMEN.

Novel Method Employed by Poultry Farmer to Drive Hawks and Rats Away.

Spokane, Wash., May 13.—John "Speedy" Smith, a poultry farmer on Placer Creek, in the heart of the Coeur d'Alene mining district in Northern Idaho, has stationed several talking parrots as policemen on his ranch to drive off hawks and mountain rats, and raids on his pens are now things of the past. The parrots take kindly to the work and by their screeching they have forced the birds of prey and rodents to give

Queer Behavior by "The Captain"

"So you come after all," observed Tabitha in a tone of reproof.

"I come right away, soon's I got your message," returned Lavinia.

The visiting spinster laid aside her shawl and straightened her bonnet. She was the dried apricot kind, and sucked in her lips so hard that she spoke with a hisp. It was a wonder that her quick, nervous movements never made her bone rattle.

Miss Tabitha was just the other way, like a pin cushion. There was a double chin under her face and a rat over it, and the latter was the more apparent because it was reddish in color, whereas the three wisps of hair that held it were brown.

"Certainly I come right away," Lavinia reaffirmed, "and I'd just like to know why you're sending for me at this hour of the morning. I've hardly had time to get up. What's happened?"

"Wait till you hear."

"The captain ain't had a spell has he?"

"Somethin' pretty like it. I should say, and if he hasn't, why then, I have."

"Do tell."

"Yes, it's just as I say. I'm that nervous I can't make a cup of tea, and the captain's in disgrace."

"Ain't taken to drinkin', has he?"

The visiting spinster went off in a titter.

"Lavinia Merkle! Well, no. But he would if he could, right enough. He's the worst parrot in Greenwich village."

"That why you've got the cage covered?"

"That's it. Didn't you hear nothin' in the night?"

"How would I, across the street?"

"Well, it's a mercy you didn't. I thought all the neighbors would hear."

"What's he done?"

"Just listen to this. Come nine o'clock last night when I was 'shakin' of bed, I noticed the captain was 'eyin' me pretty sharp."

"O he, Mr. captain, I won't stand for none of your nonsense," I says. "If you're up to nothin', you can't have the mornin' for it." And he cocked his head on one side and kept his eye on me. I said 'Good night,' but he never answered a word, so I turned out the light and got into bed."

"That all?"

"I should say not! I lay there and I lay there, wonderin' what he was goin' to do. At last, after midnight, I hadn't more than got to sleep when I was waked by a terrible screach."

"Tabitha Mowascript!"

"Yes I was 'Mr. Captain,' I says, 'you'll get yours; some mornin',' I says. And with that he let out a screach worse than other. That time I just passed it over so's he'd think I wasn't payin' no attention to him. It worked good, too. There wasn't a sound out of him for a long time, but just as I was dosin' off again he let out another yell that made me sit right up in bed. And what do you suppose he said?"

"What?"

"Whisky?"

"Tabitha Mowascript!"

"Fetch the whisky," he hollers. Wasn't it scandalous? Fetch the whisky—whisky, whisky, whisky!"

"You wicked old bird!" I says, 'you shut your trap. The neighbor'll hear you.' Then he changes his tune and calls for the peppermint."

"Peppermint?"

"Yes and hot water and smellin' salts and aniseite and Jamaica ginger, and everythin' you could think of."

"My goodness! What alled him?"

"Cussedness. That's all. He remembered the spell I had last Thanksgiving, and he was just mocking me."

"Ain't he full of the mischief!"

"Me he! Then he started in again, 'Fetch the whisky—peppermint, hot water, smelling salts, Jamaica ginger, alisette—' When he'd kept it up half an hour I got up and threw a skirt over the cage. That shut him up and I finally got a little sleep."

"Going to keep him coved over all day?"

"It would serve him good and right."

"Might be somethin' the matter with him."

"Course there isn't!"

Nevertheless Miss Tabitha stooped down and peeped under the skirt.

"My land!" gasped Miss Tabitha, straightening up suddenly with starry eyes.

Miss Lavinia shot one glance at her friend, and with a frenzied clutch whisked the skirt of the cage. At the bottom of the cage lay a pale green egg.

The captain cocked his head on one side and leered ironically at the two old maids.

"Well, I don't wonder he was surprised," remarked Lavinia.

"Surprised?"

"Yes, surprised. Ain't it rather out of the ordinary for captains?"

FUN AND FACTS BY ADA'S YOUNG ORATORS

A most interesting and enjoyable meeting was that one held at the Normal building last evening shortly after 8 p. m. A goodly number of young orators and prospective orators were present, and one of the momentous questions of the day was immediately opened for discussion. It read something like unto this: Resolved that tuberculosis is more harmful than spooning, the affirmative being maintained by Crawford and Etherege, the negative being defended by Brents and Hall. Both sides won.

The real object of the meeting was to have a preliminary discussion of the question resolved that Sec. 9, Art. 9 of the Oklahoma Constitution should be repealed. This was well done by Busby and McCain on the affirmative and Curry and Hardin on the negative.

After the debate, the club was honored by an address by Senator Robbie who presented the leading arguments both for and against repealing the above mentioned article. His remarks instructive as they were, and coming from a man thoroughly conversant with the making of the constitution, were heartily appreciated by all present.

DUKE STONE WONT RUN FOR SENATE

REFERS TO GREAT NEED OF GOOD SENATOR FROM THIS DISTRICT.

SAYS HE WANTS TO PUT HIS SHOULDERS TO WHEEL AND HELP ELECT A GOOD MAN.

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF PONTOTOC AND SEMINOLE COUNTIES:

I take this method of thanking my friends who have earnestly solicited me to become a candidate for State Senator from Pontotoc and Seminole counties. This is an honor that any Democrat ought to be proud of and I hold it to be an esteemed favor that so many of my friends have asked me to make this race, promising me their hearty support.

I realize the need of a good representative for this place, and I believe that the great interests of this part of the state demand it and for this reason I want to put my shoulder to the wheel and help to elect a good man for this place, refusing myself to become a candidate for purely business reasons, at the same time knowing that I am declining the support of a large number of good, progressive Democrats who have the good of the party at heart, and at the same time realizing that I am declining to become a candidate for a place that is worthy of much credit and a position that I feel scarcely able myself to fill. Respectfully,

DUKE STONE.

$100,000 to Be Raised for the Support of Aged Preachers.

Chicago, May 12.—Officials of the Northern Baptist Convention, in session at Bartlett gymnasium, University of Chicago, have inaugurated a movement to raise $1,000,000 for the support of aged Baptist ministers and those dependent upon them. It is proposed to incorporate the foundation, which will be one of the largest church enterprises, as soon as the form of administration of the sum can be determined.

According to the resolution presented to the convention by Rev. H. L. Morehouse, secretary of the Baptist Mission Society and chairman of the committee on ministerial relief, the plan may be broadened to include a general pension system for ministers. The foundation is expected to be secured from individual donors and from the church organization in the various states.

CATERPILLAR PLAYING HAVOC WITH FORESTS

Hominy, Ok., May 12.—There is a caterpillar working in this community that is playing havoc with the forests. Millions of them are stripping the trees of foliage, working especially on the oaks, working similar to the old army worm. A peculiar thing with this worm is that corn or wheat is not bothered, the devastation being confined to trees. Some of the expert fishermen say that on account of the number of worms falling into the creek bass are not biting, the worms furnishing plenty of food.

PASSION PLAY REHEarsed

THEATER FIELD TO GEMINI

Oberammergau, Upper Bavaria, May 11.—The Passion play season opened today with a public rehearsal. The perfected performance will be given next Monday.

Today the picturesque little village sloping to the right bank of the river Ammer, was sprinkled with snow while the surrounding mountains were completely veiled in white. To the normal population of 1,500 has been added thousands of strangers and it is quite likely the sacred scenes will be witnessed by a greater number than ever before.

The rehearsal moved smoothly and made a deep impression upon an audience that filled the outdoor theater to its limits.

Anton Lang again impersonates Christ, but there have been a number of changes in other roles since the production of 1900. The chorus has been thoroughly reorganized and now consists of forty voices. The work of the chorus is effective.

TWELVE DROWN; BOAT SINKS

FEDERAL AUTHORITIES WILL INVESTIGATE CAUSE OF ACCIDENT.

CHIVALRY OF MEN FATAL

All Could Have Been Saved Had no One Blundered.

St Louis, Mo., May 12—Federal investigation of the sinking of the packet city of Saltillo in the Mississippi river at Glen Park, Mo., last night, which cost twelve lives, will begin as soon as the crew of the ill-fated vessel arrives here. The seven passengers and five of the crew were drowned by the tilting of the gangplank when it hit a tree.

That the loss of life was due to the mistake of ordering the passengers to carry from the sinking boat when he was near the shore was the assertion of Capt. Crane.

"It was a bad mistake," he said. "Had we caused the passengers to wait a minute before trying to cross the gang plank none would have been lost."

At the time the order was given, however, no human could tell that the boat was not going to roll over into the river and draw every soul on board down. It is easy to look back and see what we might have done."

Chivalry of Men Caused Trouble. Testimony at the inquest which was not completed today, showed that the chivalry of the men who permitted the female passengers to start across the gangplank first cost the lives of five women and a baby. Capt. Harry N. Crane ordered the men to stand aside until the women left the boat.

One of the two bodies recovered today was that of Mrs. Isaac T. Rhea of Nashville, Tenn., wife of the president of the St. Louis and Tennessee River Packet Company, owners of the boat. The other was the wife of the porter, Daniel C. Taylor. Search for the remaining ten bodies was prosecuted all day.

Late today D. J. Carrahan, second mate, said the alarm on the boat was greatly increased by the cry of fire. Flames were seen to shoot up from the furnaces.

The fire was extinguished by the water when the vessel listed.

Boat Struck Rock.

Smoke from the lime kiln on the river bank and the high water prevented the pilot from keeping in the channel. The boat struck a rock concealed by the water. In backing off the vessel turned completely around.

The steamer tonight is on her side almost against the bank. Nineteen survivors arrived here today with little baggage. Many of them suffered from exposure and were unable to give an account of the night of terror which they passed through.

EXPLOSION KILLS 137 MINERS

NO HOPE FOR THOSE ENTOMBED.
ONLY FOUR HAS BEEN RESCUED.

WARNED BY NEWSPAPERS

Disaster Probably Due to Fire Damp
in Mine.

Manchester, Eng., May 12—One hundred and thirty-seven miners lost their lives today in an explosion in the Wellington coal mine at Whitehaven. Rescue parties succeeded in saving four men, but fire has broken out in the workings, leaving practically no hope for those who are still entombed.

Throughout the day the rescue-parties made considerable progress in the mine, but their work was stopped tonight by the collapse of the roof.

A curious fact is that a colliery warning was published in many of the newspapers in the mining districts of the Kingdom yesterday to the effect that unusually high barometric conditions rendered fire damp explosions extremely probable and that underground workers ought therefore be on the alert. The barometer reached its highest reading in the Whitehaven district.

King George tonight sent a message of sympathy to the owners of the colliery.

THE BATTLESHIP FLORIDA LAUNCHED

1,000 Men Required to Man America's Greatest Fighting Machine.

New York, May 12—The biggest ship in the American navy, the battleship Florida, was launched today at the New York Navy Yard. Later on, when the Arkansas and the Wyoming, now under construction, are afloat, they will exceed the Florida in size by 3,000 tons. The Florida is by no means finished, being only about 60 per cent advanced toward completion.

The Florida is 521 feet six inches long, nearly as long as a City block. Her beam is 88 feet 2 1/2 inches, she draws 28 1/2 feet of water and displaces 21,825 tons in light order, while, when fully loaded, with her supplies and ammunition, she will measure up to 23,033 tons. Her estimated speed is twenty and three-fourths knots per hour, which would have been regarded a few years ago as the top notch for a swift unarmored liner. She will carry 2,500 tons of coal in her bunkers, which should enable her to make the round trip across the Atlantic at half speed.

Turbine engines, built in the New York Navy Yard, of the enormous power of 28,000 horsepower will maintain the high speed of this big ship and the steam will be supplied by sectional boilers.

The main battery of the ship will consist of ten twelve-inch rifles arranged in pairs in turrets.

Just what the armor is to be on the ship the naval designers will not tell. That marks the adoption of a new policy in the American Navy, as heretofore it has been customary to set out in smallest detail in the Chief Constructor's annual reports the thickness of every inch of armor on the ship.

It will take more than a thousand men to manage this great fighting machine, the minimum requirement being sixty officers and 954 enlisted men.

The estimated cost of the ship complete is $6,000,000, as fixed in the act of May 13, 1908. Her keel was laid March 9, 1899, as the naval constructors have reason to be proud of the rapidity with which they have carried on their work.

The attack occurred in front of the home of the owner of the dogs. When neighbors reached the scene one dog was tearing at the aged woman's throat while the fangs of the other were buried in her arm.

They claimed to be walking on a wager of $1,000 that they would make the trip in 100 days. They were thirty-four days from Dayton and stopped at the post office to get an impression of the office stamp to prove they had been here.

WILL NOT OPPOSE COAL LAND BILL

May Be Re-Written Along Lines of Bill Introduced by Senator Gore.

Washington, May 12.—It is stated today that the conservation senators will not oppose a provision in the house Indian bill providing for the sale of the surface of the coal lands in Oklahoma, though it is expected that the provision will be re-written in the senate along the lines of the bill introduced by Senator Gore. This bill, which has been referred to a subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs, consisting of Senators Owen, Curtis and Page, provides:

1. That no purchaser shall be allowed to buy more than 160 acres of such lands when classified and sold as agricultural lands.

2. That all deferred payments shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding 5 per centum per annum.

3. That all such lands shall become subject to taxation according to the laws of Oklahoma as soon as sold.

"And providing further that the secretary of the Interior is authorized to appraise and sell to any incorporated town or city adjacent thereto not exceeding 160 acres to be used perpetually as a public park."

"Whenever congress shall provide for the sale of the coal and asphalt deposits contained within said segregated coal and asphalt lands belonging to the Chickasaw and Choctaw tribes of Indians, and prospective purchaser of said mineral deposits shall have the right to enter upon such land as he may desire to purchase, as evidenced by previous application filed with the secretary of the Interior, for the purpose of prospecting for coal or asphalt thereon, upon the approval by the Secretary of the Interior of a bond or undertaking to be filed with him as security for the payment of all damages to the crops and improvements on such lands by reason of such prospecting."

"Any person who shall have acquired from the Chickasaw and Choctaw tribes of Indians, as hereafter provided by law, the coal or asphalt deposits in any such land, or the right to mine or remove the same, may enter upon and occupy so much of the surface thereof as may be required for all purposes reasonably incident to the mining and removal of the coal and asphalt therefrom, and may mine and remove the coal and asphalt upon payment of the damages caused thereby to the owner thereof, or upon giving a good and sufficient bond or undertaking in an action instituted in any competent court to ascertain and fix said damages."

STEAMER WITH A HISTORY RESCUES SIXTEEN MEN

Once Ran the Mined Harbor at Port Arthur—Brings New Tale of Adventure.

New York, May 11.—The steamship Tocantina, a famous vessel, which ran the mired harbor of Port Arthur to escape from the Russians, swings gracefully at her dock in Brooklyn today after a trip from Brazil, bringing a new tale of adventure and rescue.

A gold medal won by the captain and presented by the Brazilian government, commemorates this latest achievement of the little ship—the saving of sixteen fishermen off the Brazilian Coast on March 22. The first of the sixteen men was sighted by the lookout before dawn. He was clinging to a plank in the open sea and was waving a weak arm to the oncoming ship. A school of sharks swam about behind him and his rescuers found that his legs had been badly torn by them. The man had been in the water twenty-four hours and had eaten his last meat six days before.

He had set out from Rio Janeiro with fifteen companions. A squall took away their steering apparatus. All went crazy but this one man and he was compelled to take to the water to escape his companions.

After hearing his story the Tocantina cruised about for several hours, finally locating the wreck and rescuing all the fishermen.

PARROTS AS POLICEMEN.

Novel Method Employed by Poultry Farmer to Drive Hawks and Rats Away.

Spokane, Wash., May 18.—John "Speedy" Smith, a poultry farmer on Placer Creek, in the heart of the Coeur d'Alene mining district in Northern Idaho, has stationed several talking parrots as policemen on his ranch to drive off hawks and mountain rats, and raids on his pens are now things of the past. The parrots take kindly to the work and by their screeching they have forced the birds of prey and rodents to give

Queer Behavior by "The Captain"

"So you come after all," observed Tabitha in a tone of reproof.

"I come right away, soon's I got your message," returned Levinia.

The visiting spinster laid aside her shawl and straightened her bonnet. She was the dried apricot kind, and sucked in her lips so hard that she spoke with a hisp. It was a wonder that her quick, nervous movements never made her bones rattle.

Miss Tabitha was just the other way, like a pin cushion. There was a double chin under her face and a rat over it, and the latter was the more apparent because it was reddish in color, whereas the three wisps of hair that held it were brown.

"Certainly I come right away," Levinia reaffirmed, "and I'd just like to know why you're sending for me at this hour of the morning. I've hardly ate breakfast. What's happened?"

"Wait till you hear."

"The captain ain't had a spell has he?"

"Somethin' pretty like it. I should say, and if he hasn't, why then, I have."

"Do tell."

"Yes, it's just as I say. I'm that nervous I can't make a cup of tea, and the captain's in disgrace."

"Ain't taken to drinkin', has he?"

The visiting spinster went off in a titter.

"Tabitha Merkle! Well, no. But he would if he could, right enough. He's the worst parrot in Greenwich village."

"That why you've got the cage covered?"

"That's it. Didn't you hear nothin' in the night?"

"How would I, across the street?"

"Well, it's a mercy you didn't. I thought all the neighbors would hear."

"What's he done?"

"Just listen to this. Come nine o'clock last night when I was 'shukin' of bed, I noticed the captain was eyin' me pretty sharp."

"O no, Mr. captain, I won't stand for none of your nonsense," I says. "If you're up to nothin', you can't have the mornin' for it." And he cocked his head on one side and kept his eye on me. I said 'Good night,' but he never answered a word, so I turned out the light and got into bed."

"That all?"

"I should say not! I lay there and I lay there, wonderin' what he was goin' to do. At last, after midnight, I hadn't no more than got to sleep when I was waked up by a terrible screach."

"Tabitha Mowascript!"

"Yes I was 'Mr. Captain,' I says, 'you'll get yours; some mornin,' I says. And with that he let out a screach worse than other. That time I just passed it over so's he'd think I wasn't payin' attention to him. It worked good, too. There wasn't a sound out of him for a long time, but just as I was dozin' off again he let out another yell that made me sit right up in bed. And what do you suppose he said?"

"What?"

"Whisky?"

"Tabitha Mowascript!"

"Fetch the whisky," he hollers. Wasn't it scandalous? Fetch the whisky—whisky, whisky, whisky!"

"You wicked old bird!" I says, 'you shut your trap. The neighbor'll hear you.' Then he changes his tune and calls for the peppermint."

"Peppermint?"

"Yes and hot water and smellin' salts and aniseette and Jamaica ginger, and everythin' you could think of."

"My goodness! What alld him?"

"Cussedness. That's all. He remembered the spell I had last Thanksgiving, and he was just mocking me."

"Ain't he full of the mischief!"

"He he! Then he started in again, 'Fetch the whisky—peppermint, hot water, smelling salts, Jamaica ginger, aniseette—'. When he kept it up half an hour I got up and threw a skirt over the cage. That shut him up and I finally got a little sleep."

"Going to keep him coved over all day?"

"It would serve him good and right."

"Might be somethin' the matter with him."

"Course there isn't!"

Nevertheless Miss Tabitha stooped down and peeped under the skirt.

"My land!" gasped Miss Tabitha, straightening up suddenly with starin' eyes.

Miss Lavinia shot one glance at her friend, and with a frenzied clutch whisked the skirt of the cage. At the bottom of the cage lay a pale green egg.

The captain cocked his head on one side and leered ironically at the two old maids.

"Well, I don't wonder he was s'prised," remarked Lavinia.

"S'prised?"

"Yes, s'prised. Ain't it rather out of the ordinary for captains?"

DUKE STONE WONT RUN FOR SENATE

REFERS TO GREAT NEED OF GOOD SENATOR FROM THIS DISTRICT.

SAYS HE WANTS TO PUT HIS SHOULDERS TO WHEEL AND HELP ELECT A GOOD MAN.

To the Democrats of Pontotoc and Seminole Counties:

I take this method of thanking my friends who have earnestly solicited me to become a candidate for State Senator from Pontotoc and Seminole counties. This is an honor that any Democrat ought to be proud of and I hold it to be an esteemed favor that so many of my friends have asked me to make this race, promising me their hearty support.

I realize the need of a good representative for this place, and I believe that the great interests of this part of the state demand it and for this reason I want to put my shoulder to the wheel and help to elect a good man for this place, refusing myself to become a candidate for purely business reasons, at the same time knowing that I am declining the support of a large number of good, progressive Democrats who have the good of the party at heart, and at the same time realizing that I am declining to become a candidate for a place that is worthy of much credit and a position that I feel scarcely able myself to fill. Respectfully,

DUKE STONE

Six Coons, Two White Men Implicated
Two Make Good Their Escape.

Last night about ten o'clock while the crooks were least expecting it, two of the city officers made a little drive through coon town and soon scented something suspicious. Upon investigation they found six negroes and two white men in a somewhat complicated game with cards and dice. Two of the negroes made their escape. Four coons and two white men were landed in the city jail and will have to face a charge of gambling before the city court this afternoon or tomorrow.

The negroes are Joe Lewis, and Bill Watson, and the whites are Mark Lancaster and Kid Williams.

Officers Culver and Brady made the arrests.

RICHARD FLOOD PAYS LARGE SUM FOR DAN HAYS TRACT BY THE KATY.

AUCTION SALE AT EARLY DATE

LEN SHREWSBERRY, RESPONSIBLE TOWNSITE MAN, WELL KNOWN IN ADA MANAGER OF SALE.

A real estate deal involving a proposed townsite residence addition of more than usual importance and of necessarily much interest to the prospective home builders of Ada which has been in progress for several months has at last been completed in detail.

Mr. Richard Flood, of Wichita Falls, Texas, an experienced townsite man who is known to have enjoyed much experience, largely successful, in town building, has been strongly attracted toward the possibilities of this city for some time, and when he viewed the last possible close-in residence addition to this city, being that of the Dan Hays tract or allotment just east of the Katy railway and south of Main street, he became thoroughly convinced that there would be one of the principal residence sections of the city.

Suggestive of the confidence of the value of this property estimated by Mr. Flood, he paid the highest price per acre or square yard ever paid for a comparative amount of land in this city, the amount paid for the forty acres secured being $21,500, more than double the amount of any other offer when the field was an open one. Mr. Flood paid this large sum of money for this forty acres with the knowledge that there was considered by many a cloud on the title to the property. Today that cloud is removed.

The business and investing public of Ada are more or less informed concerning the litigation for several years involving this property. Dan Hays, well known local Indian, contested before the Dawes commission with George Brashears for allotment rights, each knowing that such quarter section would in time be more valuable than ordinary farm property. After a contest before the Dawes Commission reaching the Interior Department, there was unequivocally awarded the decision to Dan Hays and an uncontested allotment certificate issued him. But where Dan's trouble came in, his attorneys throughout the legal proceedings which resulted favorable to him, Judge Tom D. McKeown of Ada, and Captain McKennon, of McAlester, claimed a fee for their services which was probably only securable through a partition of the land wherein they would become part owners. At that time Dan could not issue under the department's ruling, a legal title to any part of his fortune, but time went apace and it came to pass that Dan was authorized to sell his land, but for some reason Judges McKeown and McKennon were unable to collect their fee through the issuance of a deed to a part of such land which had become very valuable. But what looked like an interminable delay in opening up this greatly demanded and required tract of land, so beautifully situated for residences, came to a quick ending when Mr. Richard Flood had invested more than $21,000 in it. It appears, in fact the records show, that he got in connection, for purpose of compromise, with the only possible claimants of any interest in the land in short order and now there has been placed on record all necessary and proper legal instruments which releases and forever quiet-claims any title by Judges McKeown and McKennon to the land, and Mr. Flood is sole and undeniable owner of the land in question. The public will feel glad that this land is now situated where it will shortly be placed on the market.

Already, Mr. Flood has associated with him as manager, Mr. Len Shrewsberry, formerly of Sherman, now of Little Rock, for the purpose of beginning at once the platting and grading of the streets of this addition situated in part on the west side of the Katy tracks, but in principal part on the elevated plain just east of the tracks. Mr. Shrewsberry is well known in Ada, having for several years been sheriff of Grayson county, just across the line in Texas from where many of our Ada people came. Also he has previously placed addition sales on for responsible business citizens of this city and it is known by the writer that he can secure unqualified endorsement from them at any time as to general integrity of action in connection with the sales with which he has to do.
